INTERNATIONAL ELECTIVE STUDENT EVALUATION
The Joan and Sanford I. Weill Medical College of Cornell University

Student’s Name: _______________________ Class of: __________ Date: ______________

1) Location of Elective: ________________ Date: _____________ From: ____ To: ____

2) On-site Supervisor:
   Name: ________________________________ Tel: _______________
   Address: _________________________________________________________

3) Cornell Sponsor:
   Name: ___________________________________________________________________

4) Brief description of project: ______________________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________________

5) To what extent were your expectations regarding this experience fulfilled?
   _____ extremely _____ largely _____ somewhat _____ not at all

6) How effective was your supervisor?
   _____ very satisfactory _____ moderately satisfactory _____ not satisfactory

7) How could this elective be improved?
   ______________________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________________

8) Would you recommend this experience to another student? ___yes ____no
   If no, why not? ________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________________

9) On the basis of your experience, please rate the following features (answer each):

   Student participation  Too little Right amount Too much Not applicable
   Faculty supervisor  ______ _______ ________ ________
   Clinical experience  ______ _______ ________ ________
   Student responsibility  ______ _______ ________ ________
   Time required  ______ _______ ________ ________

10) Narrative Comments (please use reverse side).
   Include the following:  * Insight into the culture
   * How medicine is practiced in this area
   * Curricular content you recommend for students going overseas