We take a comprehensive approach to the treatment of MS and are attentive to the complex medical and social needs of our patients.

OUR PATIENT SERVICES INCLUDE:

- neurological consultations
- on-site infusion facilities
- general nursing care
- mental health and social services support.

Join us, for a series of intimate group discussions with Cornell Doctors about Multiple Sclerosis.

MAY 14, 2011
8:30AM–1:00PM
Judith Jaffe Multiple Sclerosis Center
Weill Greenberg Building
1305 York Avenue
2nd Floor, Conference Rooms ABC
New York, NY 10021
This is a free educational program co-sponsored by the New York City – Southern New York Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. This event is intended for anyone interested in learning more about multiple sclerosis (MS). The program is organized by the Judith Jaffe Multiple Sclerosis Center at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital/Weill Cornell Medical Center and Weill Cornell Medical College.

Registration
Call 1-800-344-4867, option 1 to register by May 1, 2011. Or, you can visit www.MSnyc.org. Be advised, by calling the toll free number to register for this program, you are giving your name and information to the National MS Society and you may receive future information from them unless you request otherwise.

Limited seating available, RSVP today!

Directions
BY CAR
Coming from FDR North, take the 61st Street Exit and make a right turn onto York Avenue.

Coming from FDR South, take the 71st Street Exit and make a left turn onto York Avenue.

BY SUBWAY
Take the 6 train to the 68th Street/Lexington Avenue Station. Walk four blocks East or take M66 to York Avenue.

BY BUS
Via York Avenue, take the M31 to 69th Street.
Via First Avenue, take the M15 to 68th Street. Walk one block East to York Avenue.

PARKING
Valet parking is available on-site at the York Avenue entrance between 69th and 70th Streets. There are no vouchers for parking.

Acknowledgement
(at the time of this printing)
Weill Cornell Medical College would like to thank TEVA Neuroscience for their support.